TEA SELECTION

Black Tea

Afternoon Blend

Speciality tea of the Chesterfield. Assam and Ceylon tea combined to give a brisk and flavourful taste

Ceylon

The humidity, cool temperatures, and rainfall in Sri Lanka's central highlands provide a climate that favours the production of high quality tea.

Smooth, bright and delicately perfumed

Lapsang Souchong

From the Wuyi region of the Chinese province of Fujian. The leaves are traditionally smoke-dried over pinewood fires, taking on a distinctive smokey flavour with sweet ginger notes and caramel aftertaste

Signature Earl Grey

The Earl Grey blend is named after the, British Prime in the 1830s Minister, Earl Grey who reputedly received a gift of tea flavored with bergamot oil

Second Flush Assam

Grown in India at sea level and known for its body, briskness, malty flavour, and strong, bright color. Assam is the world's largest tea-growing region, along the Brahmaputra River and bordering Bangladesh and Burma. High precipitation and temperatures creates greenhouse-like conditions of extreme humidity and heat contributing to Assam's unique malty taste

Second Flush Darjeeling

Grown at very high altitude in West Bengal, India. While brewing, it yields thin-bodied, light-colored infusion with a floral aroma. The flavour can include a tinge of astringent tannic characteristics, and a musky spiciness sometimes described as "muscatel"

Oolong

Taiwanese High Mountains Oolong Tea

Traditional Chinese tea produced through a unique process including withering under the strong sun and oxidation before curling and twisting. Oolong means "black dragon tea" in Chinese. A noticeable fruitiness and a beguiling sweetness sometimes reminiscent of peaches

Green Tea

Japanese Green Sencha Tea

The leaves are steamed for 15–20 seconds to prevent oxidization. They are then rolled, shaped, and dried to a light greenish-yellow colour with good body with a delicious flavour of rice

Osmanthus Tea

Sweet and soothing flowering green tea hand tied around sweet-tasting osmanthus blossoms and orange lily petals

Jasmine and Lily Tea

Light and smooth green tea, hand tied around flame orange lily petals and sweet jasmine flowers. A spectacular jasmine flower tea

Jasmine Peach

A beautiful Jasmine scented flower tea wrapped around an amaranth flower

Moroccan Mint

From the Chinese region of Zhejany this fragrant and refreshing tea is an outstanding organic and fair-trade gunpowder green tea.

White Tea

White Peony

Picked between 5th April and 10th April 2011 from Tai Mu Mountain garden. A delicious introduction to Chinese white teas. Composed of two-leaf and bud sets

Moonlight white

Moonlight White is a delicious silver needle white tea from a small estate close to where the Buddha was born. Sweet with a light floral fragrance.

Puerh Tea (vintage)

1990s Royal Cooked Puerh (Loose)

An extremely rare and beautifully aged loose leaf cooked puerh from the 1990s.

Infusion

Camomile

Herbal tea from the daisy family creates a light floral and delicate infusion.

Roobus

West African tea made from the Redbush plant is juicy and refreshing with a copper red colour
